Tuition assistance is available through the SFSJUS Financial Aid Fund and through grants from the Archdioceses. Applications are available at registration and must be completed by the end of the prior school year. Parents are encouraged to apply for assistance through the Archdiocesan TADS program. This application is available in print and on-line at the time of registration. A confirmation letter will be sent to you with the assistance package you have been awarded.

*

- If tuition obligations are not met for two months in succession, grant money will be in jeopardy.
- The school administration must be contacted immediately regarding late payments.
- After the third month of non-payment all grant money will be withdrawn.
- Tuition obligations that are not met will result in non-enrollment and the balance owed will be sent to collections.
